Numb. 7302

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday May 28. to Saturday June 1. 1734.

Whitehall, June 1.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Dorſet, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, have by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſſes his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Grand Jury of the City and County of the City of Corke, at an Aſſizes held for the ſaid City and County, April 13, 1734.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave, with the profoundeſt Submiſſion, and Hearts overflowing with Joy, to congratulate your Majeſty upon the happy Nuptials lately ſolemnized between her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Royal, and his moſt Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange; and we intreat your Majeſty to be aſſured, that we cannot but take to ourſelves the higheſt Satisfaction upon this moſt auſpicious Occaſion, whoſe Fathers and ourſelves (as well as the reſt of the Proteſtants of this your Majeſty's Kingdom) were, under the Divine Providence, relieved and reſtored to our Religion, our Liberties, and every thing that was dear and dear to us, by that m[illegible] and Illuſtrious Predeceſſor of his [illegible] Highneſs, the late King William, [illegible] Memory; at a Time when our Ene[illegible] had encompaſſed us round, and well nig[illegible] devoured us.— And we moſt humbly aſſure your Majeſty, that our conſtant Supplications to the Almighty King of Kings, are, and ſhall be, to preſerve your Majeſty in all Proſperity long, many and many Years, to rule over us, and your Kingdoms; that your Majeſty may always gain the Victory over all your Enemies, be bleſs'd in a numerous Poſterity; and that we and our lateſt Deſcendants may never want one of your moſt Royal and Illuſtrious Blood to ſway the Scepter of your Dominions.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Sovereign, Burgeſſes, Grand Jury, and Freemen of the Town of Kinſale.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sovereign, Burgeſſes, Grand Jury, and Freemen of this your ancient and loyal Corporation of Kinſale, being aſſembled at our Court of Deer Hundred, on this joyful Day of your Majeſty's Coronation, beg leave to approach your moſt ſacred Majeſty, with Hearts full of Gratitude, for the many Bleſſings we have enjoy'd under your moſt auſpicious Government; and on this Occaſion muſt teſtify our joyful Acknowledgements for the near Proſpect of a glorious and happy Peace, procured by your Majeſty's powerful Intereſt Abroad, and wiſe Councils at Home; a Peace, which in all Probability will ſettle the Tranquility of Europe on a laſting Foundation, reſtore Great Britain to its ancient Splendor, and render your Majeſty the Darling of your faithful Subjects and Allies, and Terror of your Enemies. Such ineſtimable Bleſſings as theſe, will, we hope, put a Stop to all groundleſs Clamours and artful Inſinuations againſt your Majeſty and Miniſtry for the future: And as we ſenſibly feel theſe happy Effects of your Majeſty's prudent and wiſe Councils; ſo may we all at laſt ſee what belongs to our Peace, and endeavour to render your Government as eaſy as it is glorious.

We alſo beg Leave to return our moſt humble Thanks to your Majeſty, for placing his Grace the Duke of Dorſet over us, whoſe Anceſtors have been ſo great Ornaments to their Country, whoſe firm Attachment to your Majeſty and your auguſt Family, and whoſe gracious Speech to both Houſes, leave us no Manner of Room to doubt, but we ſhall be happy and eaſy under his Adminiſtration.

That your Majeſty may live long a laſting Happineſs and Bleſſing to your People; and that there may never be wanting one of your moſt illuſtrious Houſe to ſway the Scepter of Great Britain with equal Credit and Glory till Time ſhall be no more, is the moſt hearty Prayer of, May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and obedient Subjects and Servants.

Vienna, May 26, N. S. By Letters from the Rhine we have adviſe, that Prince Eugene was at Hailbron on the 17th, and ſeem'd reſolv'd to ſtay there; that he had received 4000 Men of thoſe who were diſperſed about the Black Foreſt, and that old General Wallis had alſo joined him with 7000.

Hague, June 8, N. S. Letters from the Ruſſian Camp before Dantzick, dated the 29th of May, bring an Account, that the French Succours which landed at Wechſelmunde on the 23d, endeavouring to force the Ruſſian Intrenchments along the Nering, had been twice repulſed with great Loſs, and were retired under the Cannon of Wechſelmunde, their Commander in Chief being killed in the Action. According to the Advices received here from Italy, the Imperial Army was marched in four Columns towards Parma; and that the Marſhal de Villars was intrenching himſelf along the Po. It is reported, that the Muſcovite Fleet, conſiſting of 25 Men of War and Frigates, was arrived at Pillaw, eight Leagues from Dantzick. My Lord Forbes, his Britannick Majeſty's Miniſter Plenipotentiary to the Czarina, arrived here laſt Night on his Return to England. According to Advices from the Rhine, the Trenches before Philipsbourg were opened on the 2d Inſtant.

Members chosen for the ensuing Parliament.

Breconshire, John Jefferies, Esq;

Aberdeen, Montrose, &c. Col. John Middleton.

Air, Irwin, Inverary, &c. William Stewart, Esq;

Kirkwall, Week, Tain, &c. Sir Robert Monro of Foulis.

Whitehall, May 27, 1734.

Whereas it has been represented to His Majesty, that as the Eight following Regiments are come from Ireland to Great Britain, viz. the Regiments of Foot commanded by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Effingham, Colonel Cope, Colonel Lanoe, Colonel Paget, Colonel Hamilton, Colonel Hargrave, Colonel Howard, and Colonel Cornwallis, many private Soldiers may have formerly deserted from them, and since inlisted themselves in other Regiments in Great Britain; and that divers Soldiers, who did formerly belong to the Regiments now in Great Britain may have deserted from them, and entered themselves in some of the Eight Regiments of Foot above-mentioned: His Majesty is therefore graciously pleased hereby to grant his Pardon to all such Soldiers, who may have deserted in the Manner as aforesaid before the 24th of April last inclusive, and who are now in any of the said Eight Regiments, or in any of them in Great Britain; and likewise to declare, That it is his Royal Intention they shall continue in his Service as they now are, without being molested or claimed by the Officers of the respective Corps to whom they did formerly belong. In the Absence of the Secretary at War,

Rd. Arnold.
